BOOZE OR MEDICINE?

Which will you have? If a woman suffering from one of the delicate ailments peculiar to your sex it will be well for you to know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only remedy advertised for such maladies which is absolutely free from intoxicating liquors and all other harmful agents. The good you feel from its use is not the delusive exhilleration from a tippling beverage, from which the system reacts into a worse condition than before. It may be a little slower in manifesting its bracing and invigorating action, but its benefits are none the less positive and, best of all, they are lasting. It's an honest medicine—not a beverage.

"I have been taking your medicine for the last three weeks and can say I am gaining strength," writes Mrs. Soneth Kinny, of 605 East Madison Street, Mount Pleasant, Iowa. "I have been having very poor health all winter. I doctored with our family doctor but was relieved only while taking the medicine. I took Dr. Pierce's medicine several years ago. I knew it was good for any one suffering with female trouble. Have taken only one bottle and am gaining strength very fast. I could not eat nor sleep when I began taking the 'Favorite Prescription.' Heart troubled me and I had cold and numb spells till my heart would almost stop beating. Have had one child since first taking your medicine. If I continue with your treatment am positive I will be cured."

Every suffering woman in this land should write to Dr. Pierce and learn how certainly he can help her to health and strength. It costs nothing to write and receive entirely free the advice of one of the most experienced physicians in this country. His great thousand-page book the Common Senso Medical Adviser, in stiff paper covers, will be sent free for 21 one-cent stamps the bare cost of mailing; or, send 31 stamps for cloth bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. These ORIGINAL Little Liver Pills, first put up by old Dr. R. V. Pierce over 40 years ago, have been much imitated but never equaled. They're made of purely vegetable, concentrated and refined medicinal principles, extracted from native American roots and plants. They speedily relieve and cure foul, torpid and deranged Stomachs, Livers and Bowels and their attendant distressful ailments. One or two a laxative, three or four a cathartic.

Don't allow the dealer to insult your intelligence by offering his own remedy to you instead of this well-known preparation of Dr. Pierce.

COMPETENT JUDGES.

Beauty Doctors Endorse Herpicide.

Women who make a business of beautifying other women come pretty near knowing what will bring about the best results. Here are letters from two, concerning Herpicide:

"I can recommend Newbro's "Herpicide," as it stopped my hair from falling out; and, as a dressing it has no superior.

"(Signed.) Bertha A. Trullinger, "Complexion Specialist, "29½ Morrison St., Portland, Ore."

"After using one bottle of "Herpicide" my hair has stopped falling out, and my scalp is entirely free from dandruff.

"(Signed.) Grace Dodge, "Beauty Doctor, "195 Sixth St., Portland, Ore."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Character and Politics.

Everybody is willing to accord to Judge L. L. Lewis, the republican candidate for Governor, a good character. There is no question as to his personal character, but there is a question as to his horrible politics.

In the past Judge Lewis has been a partisan. His personal character was not so nice as to drive him out of the party which was promoting the negro in politics. There is no doubt that, personally, despite the unfortunate speeches he made twenty-five years ago, Judge Lewis himself was opposed to miscegenation. He was also opposed to the law to prohibit the marriage between the races. Yet he was advocating a policy of putting the negro on top in Virginia. He was as bad as his party. His party strived to displace a government of white people for a government by negroes. Even at the last national republican convention a negro and a white child were paraded on the platform to show the idea of the radicals in the convention of social and political equality.

Now, if Judge Lewis is opposed politically and personally to that sort of thing, he should get out of the party. He should not stay in the party and submit to it and promote it on the theory that it affects other people—it is of no consequence to him. He cannot be one thing personally and another thing politically.

There is another phrase of the subject. Judge Lewis was with the party which promoted the negro in the past, with bayonets when that was possible, and now he promises graft to the people if they will go with him into the republican party. His party represented negro supremacy in the past, it represents the policy of the industrial bosses now. In either case Judge Lewis has no claim on the people of Virginia. His party and his politics are alien to Virginia. His personal character is not intense enough to drive him out of the party. Hence character dosen't count.—[The "Portsmouth Star," October 25th.

New Treatment for Appendicitis.

Consul General Guenther sends from Frankfort, Germany, to Washington, a valuable report on some experiments made recently by Dr. Moosbrugger, of Leutkirch, in the use of a solution of silver in the treatment of appendicitis. It has been recognized in the medical profession for sometime that it would be a great boon it a remedy could be found to make an operation unnecessary. Such a remedy, it is claimed, has been found in "collangol," the name given to a form of pure silver soluble in water. Chemical manipulations for rendering silver soluble in water were discovered some years ago. The antiseptic property of silver has long been known, as, for instance, in the form of luner caustic or nitrate of silver, which has also been administered internally. Its use, however, has been very limited.

Dr. Moosbrugger has used collangol in appendicitis internally, as well as externally, and the treatment, he claims, has yielded extraordinarily good results. In incipient cases decided improvement was noticable after two or three days of treatment, but in cases when inflammation of the peritineum had already taken place the cure was very slow, often only after several weeks of treatment both internally and externally. He claims that, excepting two very severe cases, 11 of the 72 which came under his treatment were cured without the knife, and he believes that in every case of appendicitis, be it ever so acute and malignant, if diagnosed early, a cure can be effected with collangol without resorting to the knife.

Fatal Shooting.

News reached Windsor late last night of a probable fatal shooting affair near White Post, Clarke county. The principals were Winfield and Charles Welsh, brothers, aged 20 and 25 years, respectively. The latter now lies at the point of death with a bullet wound in his abdomen, and Winfield Welsh is in custody pending the outcome of his brother's injuries.

The brothers had been hunting birds, and were on their way home late Sunday evening. Winfield carried a .22-caliber rifle. While his brother Charles was but 10 feet ahead he suddenly exclaimed: "I will shoot you." He pulled the trigger, and the brother fell to the ground.

The ball entered the right side just below the last rib, passed through the young man's body and emerged on the left side, carrying with it a piece of rib. Horror stricken, the brother who did the shooting ran for assistance, and the injured man was taken to his home, a mile distant.

Dr. Wilton Stewart, who was summoned, says that Welsh cannot recover. Whether there had been a quarrel between the brothers is not known, but it is stated the shooting was an accident. Winfield Welsh says that it was not his intention to shoot his brother, and that the rifle was discharged accidentally. The young man is frantic with grief over the affair, and for fear that he will do himself bodily harm a close watch is being kept over him.

Faith Not Necessary.

You may be just as skeptical and pessimistic as you please. Kodol will digest what you eat whether you eat or not. You can put your food in a bowl, pour a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure on it and it will digest it the same as it will in your stomach. It can't help but cure Indigestion and Dyspepsia. It is curing hundreds and thousands—some had faith and some didn't. Kodol will cure you if medicine can cure you, whether you have faith in it or not. Sold by W. F. Creighton, & Co. 461 King street.

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured.

'Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tullamore, Ontario, Canada. Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, OCT. 31, 1905.

THE CZAR OF RUSSIA has at last surrendered his autocracy. There is but one absolute monarchy in Europe at present—Turkey, a house of cards—which would long ago have been swept from the Bosphorus but for other nations who apprehend serious consequences should it be allowed to fall. While many will sympathize with Nicholas in the long train of misfortunes which have marked his reign, it must be acknowledged that he or his advisors have made mistakes, the most serious being the Emperor's refused to show himself in front of the Winter Palace last January when many of his subjects had gathered to pray for certain minor reforms, and were crying, "Long live the Emperor." His advisors persuaded him to remain in doors and the soldiers fired into men, women and children and dyed the snow of St. Petersburg with blood. A sanguinary war with Japan was in progress and with uprisings at home and defeat abroad conditions have grown worse and worse until the Czar has been forced to make the sacrifice. He is now no longer "the Czar of all the Russias," but the people will in future participate in the government of that vast empire,—that is, provided the spirit of disorder does not lead them into greater excesses than those which have marked the ill starred empire recently. The Russian people have at last obtained what they have sought for many years. Now, what will they do with it?

AS STATED yesterday, Senator Martin has cancelled all his dates for speakings and will be found at the democratic headquarters in Richmond, for the rest of the campaign, where he will infuse enthusiasm into the campaign. The democrats will make the last week of the campaign one of the most active the State has witnessed for years. All the speakers will be kept on the stump and there is to be a wind-up that will arouse the voters as they have not been aroused for many years. The threatened split in the party, due to the State primary, has not occurred, and all the factions are working as they have never worked before with the single purpose of electing all democrats. Mr. Swanson will close the campaign in his home city, Danville, the night preceding the election and will go at once to his home and vote. He has made a vigorous campaign, and this will be the first speech he has made in Danville in some time. The other nominees of the party have all made active canvasses and if the democratic party does its duty their ticket will be elected by forty thousand majority next Tuesday.

THE President has returned to Washington from his trip through the South, during which he could not help observing the most remarkable change in sentiment of a people that history has ever recorded. Less than a year ago these same people were naturally inimical to Mr. Roosevelt, as his and their ideas on so many points differed so radically. He had said hard things of them; had belittled their long-cherished traditions, which he termed "mere sentimentalies," and had forced them to submit to his will in matters most repugnant to their feelings. These same people in turn had roundly scored the President, but during his recent trip, they thronged to greet him, opened their hearts and homes to him, racked their brains to do him honor, and apparently have adopted many of his ideas regarding a strong and paternal government which they had opposed all their lives before. Truly times change and men change with them.

SOUR milk as a sure preventive against old age, wrinkles, dull eyes and as a restorer of hair so interested the 400 women delegates to the New York City Federation of Women's Clubs, in session at the Astor House Friday, that they forgot all about single tax, equal suffrage and all such minor matters while they planned sour milk parties. Even sour milk baths were discussed by those who admitted to a suspicion of crow's feet. All this commotion was caused by a talk on hygiene delivered by Dr. Sarah J. MacNutt, who explained that the germ that turns the milk sour would also kill the old age bacilli and leave them young. After this sour milk discussion there was little time left for the woman's suffrage question; their personal appearance was the first and last consideration of the women.

JUST when so much is being said about the President using his influence to bring about reform in the game of football and to do away with the brutality now connected with the game, comes information that the President's son during his rough playing was so badly injured in the game on Saturday between the Harvard and Worcester teams that he was allowed to retire. Reform, like charity, should begin at home.

THE United States Supreme Court yesterday decided that the stockholders of a national bank have the right to inspect the books under proper regulations. The decision is a just one, when it is remembered that stockholders are held responsible to depositors in case of anything going wrong with the bank.

THE President has requested the Keep commission to investigate the method of conducting business in the bureaus of the Interior Department. Now another government scandal may be expected.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Official notification of the establishment of a constitutional form of government in Russia was communicated to the State Department last night by Spencer Eddy, the United States charge d'affairs at St. Petersburg. Mr. Eddy's version of of the ukase of the Czar does not differ materially from that conveyed in the press dispatches. His message announced that a constitution would be proclaimed at midnight last night authorizing the establishment of a full parliamentary government, the Emperor reserving the right of veto. Among the constitutional rights granted are freedom of speech, press and person, the inviolability of domicile and the right of habeas corpus. The right to vote is extended to all classes. Witte is made Prime Minister and according to Mr. Eddy's dispatch the other ministers are to be appointed by the parliament.

The Navy Department has received two dispatches from Rear-Admiral Train, dated yesterday at Shanghai. No mention is made in either of them about his having been attacked by a Chinese mob at Nanking. The target practice of the battleship Oregon was the subject of one message, and the other conveyed the expression of pleasure of the Mikado at the visit of the American warships to Japan. In view of the receipt of these messages, Navy Department officials are disposed to discredit the story that Admiral Train and his son were attacked at Nanking. Shanghai, from which the dispatches come, is a long distance from Nanking, which fact also tends to throw discredit upon the story.

Another chapter was added to a protracted litigation when a receivership suit was instituted in the district court here today against the Knights of Labor and various members of the order composing the so-called Burns and Hayes fractions, which have struggled for the control of offices ever since the convention in Toronto several years ago split and selected two tickets. The present suit is brought by Master Workman Joseph R. Mansion and Recording Secretary Patrick H. Farrell, who allege that the internal quarrels of the claimants for office have injured the order. The application for a receiver will be argued this week.

U. S. Minister Leishmann at Constantinople today cabled the State Department that the execution of the Armenian Vartanian has been postponed. The postponement of Vartanian's execution is evidently a direct result of the American Minister's vigorous representations. The department here still hopes that he will be turned over for trial by the American consular court, thus vindicating the contentions of this government.

Spencer Eddy, the charge d'affairs of the United States at St. Petersburg, has cabled to the State Department the following list of the members of the new Russian Cabinet: Minister of the Interior, Alexis Cholensky; Minister of Finance, Roanoff; Minister of Justice, Koni; Minister of Education, Krohovsky; Minister of Ways and Communications, Ziegler von Shaffhausen.

President Roosevelt arrived at the navy yard at 11:55 this morning. He was greeted with the customary salute of 21 guns. The Marine band played "Star Spangled Banner" as he descended the gang plank from the Dolphin. Sixteen officers in gold lace who were drawn up at attention, and the crowd who had assembled around the wharf all stood with uncovered heads until the anthem was finished. Mrs. Roosevelt was at the wharf with a basket phaeton to meet the President, and shortly after landing he drove away with her to the White House, followed by the secret service men in a buggy and Secretary Loeb and Dr. Rixey in carriages. The voyage of the Dolphin up the Potomac from Wolf Trap Light was uneventful save for a fog which caused an hour's delay below Maryland Point. The President appeared to be in excellent health, as well as the other members of the party. The President's voyage through the Gulf and up the Atlantic coast was a most pleasant one for all on board the West Virginia, according to Secretary Loeb. During the gale of Sunday night the President was just a trifle seasick. "In fact all of us felt a little qualmish," said the Secretary, "but the President did not give up and remained on deck most of the time." During the trip the President broke bread with all the officers of the squadron, Admiral Brownson inviting them in relays until all had had the honor. On Saturday evening the President took dinner in the ward room of the West Virginia and drank with them the old toast "Sweethearts and Wives."

The President this evening announced the appointment of Chas. A. Stillings, of Boston, to be public printer, vice Frank Palmer, of Illinois, removed. Mr. Ricketts, who has been acting as public printer, will probably resume his position as foreman of the government printing office.

Frederick J Allen, Commissioner of Patents, today told the Landis printing committee that he would be glad to have the cost of printing the Patent Office Gazette reduced, as it has long been a drain on the financial resources of the bureau. The indexing of the Patent Gazette publications costs $29,512 annually for printing, he said, and occupy the full time of three clerks. He could suggest no way of effecting a saving in that regard however. The weekly Gazette has a paid circulation of 2,647; a free list of 3,902. He made no objection to Mr. Landis's suggestion that the free list be practically abolished. John W. Bobson, chief of the issue division of the patent office, testified that it costs $4.60 for the composition and lithographing of each page of the Patent Office Gazette.

The famous "poison squad" of the Agriculture Department has returned to duty under Dr. Wiley and for the next six months will eat only refrigerated foods—eggs, chickens, beef and vegetables kept in cold storage for a few months or years. If they survive this test, as they did borax, salicylic acid and other preservatives, they will be given something harder next time

Charles H. Darling, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, today relinquished his office, and will proceed to Burlington, Vt., to take up the duties of Collector of Customs at that port. Truman H. Newbarry, of Michigan, who has been selected as the new Assistant Secretary of the Navy is here and will take charge of his desk tomorrow.

After traveling about the country for more than a week, Detectives Helen and McNamee have succeeded in landing Howard and Mary Thomas, colored, behind the bars to answer for the alleged theft of $850 worth of jewelry from the house of Charles Pearson, president of the Virginia Brick Company, 1217 Massachusetts avenue. They located Thomas and his wife in Philadelphia.

The Board of Consulting Engineers of the Isthmian Canal Commission held a meeting today to discuss the preliminary reports of the three subcommittees formed for the especial study of the lock canal, the sea level canal and the unit prices for both of them.

The conference of the general board of bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church adjourned at noon today to meet within the next few weeks at the call of Bishop Warren, the senior active bishop. Nothing was made public about the decision reached unanimously in regard to the disposition of the case of Prof. Hinkley Mitchell, whose nomination to the chair of Hebrew in the Boston University was up for confirmation. The report of last night that Prof. Mitchell will not occupy the chair of Hebrew is confirmed today. The resolution in which the bishops embodied their decision was so drawn that Mitchell's friends found it possible to vote for it. One report is that the matter is left just where it was at the Louisville conference six months ago, when the matter was referred back to the university trustees. Bishops Goodsell, Cranston and Mallalieu were appointed a committee to notify the Boston University of the decision, and in a few days when they draw up the report, they will make the finding public. While this adjourned meeting of the conference will be held in either Brooklyn, New York, or Philadelphia, the next conference will be at Evansville, Ind.

The Comptroller of the Currency in a statement of the condition of the Enterprise National Bank of Allegheny, Pa., issued today, estimates the shortage at one and a half million dollars and charges that the books have been fradulently kept, collateral securing loans fraudulently withdrawn and fraudulent certificates of deposit issued.

News of the Day.

The Chinese army maneuvers were pronounced marvelous for a body so recently organized.

Count von Buelow suggests that a joint commission be named to arrange a German-American commercial treaty.

The census of New York State shows a population of 8,066,672, of whom 4,014,304 are in Greater New York city.

Nixon & Zimmerman, of New York and Chicago, are financially backing a syndicate that will build a magnificent theater at the corner of Thirteenth street and Pennsylvania avenue northwest, Washington.

At an advanced age Mrs. Sara Perry Rodgers, widow of Robert S. Rodgers, died yesterday at the home of her son-in-law, Lieut. J. F. Meigs, in South Bethlehem, Pa. Mrs. Rodgers was the daughter of Commodore Perry, who led the expedition to Japan in 1852.

Dr. Edward Leon was held for the grand jury yesterday in Washington charged with performing an illegal operation upon Sadie Volk early in October. The action was the result of an inquest held by Coroner Nevitt in the morgue yesterday on the body of Miss Volk's child.

It is said that George E. Green, the former State Senator of New York, who is under indictment in connection with the frauds in the Postoffice Department, will come to Washington on Wednesday to give bond for his appearance when wanted for trial. The case against him will be tried in the Supreme Court of the District.

The Board of Methodist Bishops in Washington took action on the Mitchell case yesterday, and in the afternoon session cast a vote which was not announced to the press. There is little doubt, however, that Prof. Hinckley G. Mitchell failed of confirmation as an instructor in Hebrew and biblical exegesis in Boston University.

Mr. Eliot Lord, special agent of the United States Tenth Census on Social Statistics, was in Richmond last night on his way to Chattanooga to attend the Immigration Convention, which was called by Governor Montague and other State executives and which will assemble next week. Mr. Lord represents the Italian-American Agricultural Association, which has for its objects the colonizing of emigrants in the various States. He says the scheme has worked admirably in the North, and he proposes shortly to establish some colonies in the South.

Oscar J. Ricketts, acting Public Printer, yesterday submitted his estimates to the Treasury Department, for transmission to Congress, showing the amounts required for the conduct of the government printing office for the next fiscal year. The total amount carried in the estimates, including an item of $350,000 for leaves of absence, $5,853,234.62. The amount expended by the public printer for the fiscal year which ended last June was $6,760,256.66, or an excess of $907,022.04 over the amount which the acting public printer estimates as necessary for the coming fiscal year.

Virginia News.

Robert Miller, yesterday, murdered his wife in Berkley by beating her to death. He afterwards surrendered to the police.

The Virginia Presbyterian Synod in session in Richmond decided yesterday to establish a synod school at Martinsville for the benefit of people living in the mountains.

Mayor T. P. Wallace, of Fredericksburg, is well enough to leave the hospital and return to the Exchange Hotel. He will, however, not resume his duties as Mayor for several days.

Rev. A. J. Ramsey, pastor of the Baptist Church in Berkley, has resigned on account of differences in the congregation as to his preaching of the "holiness" doctrine. There was a split in the church Sunday night and 35 members went with him to establish a separate church.

The Norfolk Typographical Union has withdrawn its request for an eight-hour day for the job printers, as there was a show of opposition from the job-printing offices. The job offices are firm and the managers are determined to resist the demand for an eight hour day. They will also declare for open shops.

Capt. Simeon C. Peyton died at his city residence in Fredericksburg on Main street Sunday evening of heart trouble, aged 76 years. He had been sick for less than a week. The deceased was one of the wealthiest and most prominent citizens of Stafford county, where he was born and spent his life engaged mostly in farming pursuits.

The suicide body of William D. Coker, of Gloucester county, with the bodies of his wife and two small daughters, murdered by him Saturday, were laid in the old homestead cemetery, Greenwood, Sunday. Incident to the burial, a horse hitched to a vehicle standing near the church door became frightened and dashed away, knocking from the coffin stand the casket containing Coker's body. In accordance with the dying request of Coker himself, he was buried with his wife and daughters. The opinion is gaining ground that whiskey was responsible for Coker's deeds. In a note left by him he declared his intention to kill two colored women, Susan Crowder and Mary Lorimer.

END OF AUTOCRACY.

The Russian autocracy is at an end. Nicholas, under the unanimous advice of the ministers, and under the pressure of the revolt of his whole empire, has surrendered his autocratic power and granted a constitutional government.

The concession comes unwillingly. It is, in fact, the last desperate effort to save the crown itself for the Romanoff dynasty.

Whether it will suffice in the present supreme crisis of national rebellion cannot yet be said.

All ordinary political liberties and genuine representative government by a national legislature are granted. A constitution itself is not formulated, but the power to draft one is delegated to a douma to be elected by the suffrage of all classes.

The only danger is that popular passion is so inflamed and the perception of the complete paralysis of the government so widespread that the masses may rush into grave excesses and demand the complete sweeping away of the existing regime throughout the empire. A few hours more will determine the turn of events.

Count Sergius Witte has been appointed first premier of Russia with power to reorganize the goverment.

The new premier in a message to the American people says he is sure they will join in the hope that the Russian people will wisely aid in the realization of the liberties guaranteed by co-operating with the government for their peaceful introduction.

The revolutionists in St. Petersburg declare it is too late and they showed their contempt of the manifesto by bomb throwing.

The following imperial manifesto was issued last night:

"We, Nicholas the Second, by the grace of God emperor and autocrat of all the Russias, grand duke of Finland, etc., declare to all our faithful subjects that the troubles and agitation in our capitals and in numerous other places fill our heart with excessive pain and sorrow.

"The happiness of the Russian sovereign is indissolubly bound up with the happiness of our people, and the sorrow of our people is the sorrow of the sovereign.

"From the present disorders may arise great national disruption. They menace the integrity and unity of our empire.

"The supreme duty imposed upon us by our sovereign office requires us to efface ourselves and to use all the force and reason at our command to hasten in securing the unity and co-ordination of the power of the central government and to assure the success of measures for pacification in all circles of public life which are essential to the well being of our people.

"We, therefore, direct our government to carry out our inflexible will in the following manner:

"First, to extend to the population the immutable foundations of civic liberty, based on the real inviolability of person, freedom of conscience, speech, union and association.

"Second without, suspending the already ordered elections to the State douma, to invite the participation in the douma, so far as the limited time before the convocation of the douma will permit of those classes of the population now completely deprieved of electoral rights, leaving the ultimate development of the principle of the electoral right in general to the newly established legislative order of things.

"Third, to establish as an unchangeable rule that no law shall be enforced without the approval of the State douma, and that it shall be possible for the elected of the people to exercise real participation in the supervision of the legality of the acts of the authorities appointed by us.

"We appeal to all faithful sons of Russia to remember their duty toward the fatherland, to aid in terminating these unprecedented troubles, and to apply their force, in co-operation with us, to the restoration of calm and peace upon our natal soil.

"Given at Peterhof, October 30, in the eleventh year of our reign.

"NICHOLAS."

Revolution in Palace.

A dispatch to the semi-official Paris Temps from St. Petersburg yesterday evening says:

"The crisis continues active and preserves an aspect of universality, against which the government seems powerless to act. Besides the popular revolution there is reason to fear a revolution within the palace. The Emperor decides at one moment to grant a constitution and then yields in the contrary direction. His will is distracted between contending influences. He refuses to accept anything and remains inactive in an atmosphere of intrigue and hostility. There is much talk of an early conclusion of the strike, as it is evident that the strikers are unable to remain long without work. However, there are no indications at present of an actual resumption of work. On the contrary, the strikers are improving the situation daily. Their delegates are entering the homes of officers of the army to advocate a revolt. The situation in Finland has become as critical as in St. Petersburg. The soldiers have been ordered not to approach within 300 feet of the crowds for the purpose of avoiding bombs."

Tunnel Completed.

The new tunnel of the Pennsylvania Railroad under Virginia aveune, from Second to Eleventh streets, southeast Washington, through which all the freight business of the Pennsylvania and Southern systems will be handled after the completion of the new union depot and the Capitol Hill tunnel, is at last finished, after nearly a year and a half of work. All that now remains to be done is to fill in over the top of the tunnel to the original level of Virginia avenue for a short distance between Sixth and Eighth streets southeast, and this is now going rapidly forward.

Cheated Death.

Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine. E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Iowa, cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had Kidney Trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Electric Bitters, which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble, and kept them constantly on hand, since, as I find they have no equal." E. S. Today's Telegraphic News

The Czar and His Subjects.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—The streets of the city were filled last night from the time the joyful news of the granting of a constitution became known until morning. Continuous jubilations were held and it was sunrise before the people began to think of retiring to their homes.

Several thousand people marched to the home of M. Pobiedonostieff, procurator of the Holy Synod, and hissed the procurator, who has been one of the strongest opponents of the idea of granting any degree of liberty to the people. As they passed his house the people hissed and shouted, "Down with the enemy of liberty." The crowd then proceeded to the former home of the late Grand Duke Sergius, who was assassinated because of his strong support of the autocracy. A red flag was unfurled as the people marched past his house silently and with bared heads. Later the people marched to the prisons and demanded that all political prisoners should be set free. No military patrols were on duty during the night, and the police permitted the people to do as they pleased, with scant restrictions. Some students held an open air meeting at which they criticized the reforms granted by the Czar and demanded the formation of a Republic.

The news today was received with demonstrations of wild enthusiasm. The streets are now blocked with immense crowds of wildly cheering people who are almost riotous with joy. In their delirium, all the people are fraternizing on the best of terms. Strangers embrace strangers in their happiness, glad to have the opportunity to exchange congratulations. A holiday aspect prevails. Work has been completely suspended and it is impossible to get any one to think of returning to business just at present. Many soldiers and policeman are joining in the demonstrations. It is expected that the strike will come to an end immediately and that as soon as the people recover from their delirium of joy they will return to work.

The manifesto of the Czar, however, does not meet with the approval of many, and the leaders of the radical party will not support the manifesto. They intend to begin immediately the organization of the workingmen into a party which will demand: First, the abolition of the nobility; second, universal suffrage, including the extension of the franchise to women; third, complete local autonomy, with local parliaments similar to the various State legislatures of America for Finland Poland and the Caucasus.

The Czar arrived today at the Winter Palace. The grounds were thronged with dense crowds of people.

Premier Witte promises immediate release of all political prisoners who can be liberated without danger to the public peace. Workmen are parading the streets this afternoon carrying flags. The principal buildings are decorated with bunting, and meetings are proceeding in all districts.

Forty thousand people gathered at the Kasan cathedral square while the services were being held inside. For the first time in the record of the church the word "autocrat" was omitted from the prayer for the Czar.

Moscow, Oct. 31.—The strike committee of Moscow, after receiving the manifesto of the Czar, granting the constitution and proclaiming civic liberty to the people, ordered all the workingmen who have been out on strike, to return to work. Telegraphic communication between Moscow and St. Petersburg has been partially restored.

Warsaw, Oct. 31.—The news of the imperial manifest was received by a local newspaper here last night and quickly spread through the city. There were no demonstrations, however, as the people feared it was not true. The streets were dark and deserted throughout the night and the usual patrol of Cossacks was maintained. The newspapers reappeared today, but the strike continues despite the manifesto of the Czar. The revolutionists demand amnesty for all political prisoners before ceasing their agitation. Large forces of infantry, and cavalry are patrolling the streets to prevent disorders. Chaos reigns and the authorities are wholly nonplussed as they do not know what attitude to adopt. They have telegraphed to St. Petersburg for further orders. From the present outlook, trouble is expected. The social democrats have issued a fiery proclamation inciting the workingmen to continue the revolution, saying that Russia is not yet free. Mass meetings are being organized for the purpose of bringing the workingmen to take this course. They appear to be acting under the orders of the revolutionary committee.

London, Oct. 31.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from St. Petersburg states that the situation there is aggravated by the revolutionists, who express a determination to free all political prisoners. It is reported that a number of skirmishes have occurred with the troops and that Professor Tarle was wounded.

A Reuters dispatch from Odessa states that during a demonstration this morning in celebration of the victory of the people a report became current that four warships had arrived in a state of mutiny and threatened to bombard the town. There is no confirmation of the report.

A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from St. Petersburg states that the workmen's union has decided to continue the strike until an amnesty is proclaimed and the granting of the common right of all to vote is announced.

Odessa, Oct. 31. The persons arrested in the disorders of Sunday were liberated today. The greatest excitement prevails in the city. The immense force of police on duty is utterly powerless to cope with the crowds. Red flags are waving everywhere and traffic has been completely stopped in the main streets. The Cossacks are only hooted at in their efforts to restore order and no attention is paid to them. The houses of all officials are closely guarded. Tomorrow funeral ceremonies will be held for the victims of the shooting by troops on Sunday and a big demonstration is planned.

Destructive Fire.

Pine Grove, W. Va., Oct. 31.—Fire started this morning in the Pine Grove Hotel and spread to the Pine Grove Bank, Methodist Church and other buildings until the town has been almost entirely destroyed. Dynamite is being used to stop the further progress of the flames. It is reported several persons lost their lives in the hotels but in the excitement this can not be verified. The fire started from an explosion of natural gas in the Pine Grove Hotel

From Richmond.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Virginia, October 31.—Senator Martin, who is at the helm of the democratic campaign, expresses confidence in the result of the election. He is directing the battle with his old time shrewdness and dexterity and is getting in intimate touch with leaders all over the State.

Trouble is experienced in getting speakers for important points, but all will finally be covered. The wires are being kept hot today summoning orators to the front for the final struggle. General impression prevails that Swanson's majority will reach 25,000 and that the democrats will control the legislature by a reduced majority.

Politics in New York.

New York, Oct. 31.—All the nominees for Mayor were on the stump last night, also District Attorney Jerome, and each was received at the various halls visited with rousing cheers. Candidate Hearst made his first political visit to the East side and addressed six indoor meetings, and one in the open air. Altogether from 15,000 to 20,000 persons heard him.

Mayor McClellan spoke in the Manhattan Casino and also at two church fairs. In his Casino address, the Mayor asked the people to sink partisanship, and rally to the support of the democratic ticket.

Mr. Ivins, the republican candidate, invaded the Borough of Queens. He traveled about forty miles in an automobile, and delivered four speeches.

He concluded his speaking for the night by an address at the Grand Street Theatre at the conclusion of the performance there.

District Attorney Jerome addressed a gathering of about 4,000 persons at Sulzer's Harlem Casino. As on previous nights, Mr. Jerome attacked "political bosses" and "boss rule."

The odds on Mayor McClellan fell yesterday to 2½ to 1, and Jerome became a favorite at 10 to 6.

Captain Amundsen's Expedition.

Christiania, Norway, Oct. 31.—News has been received from the expedition headed by Captain Amundsen, which left here on June 17, 1903, to seek the magnetic pole. Since September, 1903, the party has been located on King William's island where Captain Amundsen has been carrying on extensive scientific investigations. Capt. Amundsen has sent word that all members of party are well. He expected to return to San Francisco during the present autumn if the ice would permit him to make the passage. Capt. Amundsen was first officer of the Belgic when Gerlach sailed on his arctic expedition in 1897-1899. On his return from that trip the captain conceived the idea of searching for the magnetic pole as the result of a conversation with Professor Neaumayer, of Hamburg, who told him the discovery of this poll would be of inestimable value to science. The expedition left Christiania on June 17, 1903, on board the whaling ship Gjoa, with four years' equipment.

The Suit Case Mystery.

Boston, Oct. 31.—J. Morris Nathan, sweetheart of Susan Geary, the "suit case victim" will, it is said, be brought to Boston tomorrow, from Pittsburg, and he will be called upon to tell the police all he knows about the murder. Nathan is alleged to have admitted that he knew of the chorus girl's condition, and that she had discussed in his presence the advisability of a criminal operation. Nathan is not accused of having committed the crime himself. The police are seeking to connect a woman with the actual death of the girl.

It is stated that in his interview Nathan supplemented his confession of yesterday. Nathan told the detectives that he and the girl had discussed her condition, and the advisability of her visiting a doctor for the purpose of undergoing a criminal operation. He gave the name of the doctor to the police.

Arrest of Jackson.

Boston, Oct. 31.—Jackson, of the sloop Dorado who is alleged to have made a practice the last summer of robbing houses and yachts along the coast from Newport to New York and who escaped the police of Newport, when supposed to be cornered, was arrested in Boston this morning by Inspectors Conway and Hennessey. He gave the name of Frank Green and said his home was in New York. About $900 in jewelry was found on him. This, he says, was given him. He also had a check in his trunk supposed to be in Bangor, Me.

Hallowe'en Carnival.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 31.—The feature of the Hallowe'en carnival today was the crowning of Queen Titania II. on the approach to the Capitol. Notwithstanding the fact that the sky was overcast and rain threatened, an immense crowd of persons assembled in the vicinity of the Capitol to witness the ceremonies.

Warned by the Authorities.

New York, Oct. 31.—Commissioner McAdoo today sent a communication to the management of the Garrick Theatre, notifiying that if an attempt was made to produce the play "Mrs. Warren's Profession," tonight, that all participants would be arrested.

Verdict of Suicide.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 31.—Without entering upon the affairs of the Enterprise National Bank, and permitting questions pertaining thereto, to be asked, Coroner Armstrong conducted an official inquiry into the death of T. Lee Clark, today, the result being that the cashier had come to his death by a gunshot wound inflicted by his own hand.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Oct. 31.—Price movements during the first hour were almost all toward a higher level. The incentive to the trading throughout the list was the favorable Russian news. The Czar's manifesto was received as removing all fears of financial trouble in Paris and averting probabilities of gold exports from New York.

Some Seasonable Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Wards Off Pneumonia.

All coughs, colds and pulmonary complaints that are curable are quickly cured by One Minute Cough Cure. Cears the phlegm, draws out inflamation and heels and soothes the affected part strengthens the lungs, wards off pneumonia. Harmless and pleasant to take. Sold by W. F Creighton, and Co. 401 King street.

Charges Against a Foreman.

Portsmouth, Va., Oct. 31.—A board composed of Captain Albion Wadhams, executive officer of the Norfolk navy yard; Lieutenant Commander George R. Clark, aide to Admiral Harrington, commandant, and naval constructor Lawrence S. Adams conducted an investigation of the charges preferred against L. D. Volk, foreman of ship joiners, in the construction and repair department of the Norfolk navy yard, yesterday. The charges were preferred by the republican executive committee of Norfolk and Portsmouth and alleged discrimination in the employment of labor in the construction and repair department by Mr. Volk. The report of the investigating committee has been forwarded to the Secretary of the Navy at Washington.

The Effect in France.

Paris, Oct. 31.—The news of the solution of the Russian difficulties was received in France with intense relief where both political and financial apprehensions were felt.

M. Struhve, the editor of the Russian Magazine Losdovojiene, published in this city, and representing the monarchical democratic party said in an interview with the Publishers' Press correspondent today: "We are satisfied with the manifesto. We consider it a great advance in our struggle against autocracy, which will continue unadated. Hereafter our efforts will be directed along legal lines until universal suffrage is obtained."

Accidentally Killed.

Presque Isle, Me., Oct. 31.—The fatal shooting of William Green, aged 26, by a cousin, Leonard Green, while the two with the former's brother, Joseph, were hunting deer in the woods near Perham has just been reported. It is understood the Leonard mistook William for a deer. It is recalled as a coincidence that about two years ago, while hunting, a brother of William Green accidentally killed a brother of Leonard Green.

Conditions in Finland.

Helsingfors, Finland, Oct. 31 — Meetings are being held throughout Finland demanding the calling together of the Landtdagen to replace the present domestic government with trustworthy Findlanders. Theatres, banks, schools and shops, with the exception of provision stores, are closed today. The newspapers are today uncensored, the streets are crowded, but the people are orderly.

Foul Play Suspected.

Philadelphia, Oct. 31.—Coroner Thomas Dogan held an inquest this morning in the case of Mrs. Margaretta Todd, 77 years old, of 29 west 26th street, New York, whose body was found badly mangled on the tracks of the Philadelphia & Reading Railway at Fountain Green, on the night of October 27. A broad intimation was made that the aged woman was a victim of foul play.

Warn Against Revolution.

"Government by injunction," if unchecked, will lead to a national revolution in the opinion of Typographical Union, No. 16, of Chicago, which, at a meeting Sunday, passed the resolutions denouncing the liberal use of court writs in labor troubles.

It was announced also that officials of the union had sought legal advice with regard to the filing of a bill for an injunction to restrain firms connected with the Typothetae from conspiring to injure the credit of the International Typographical Union and local union No. 16.

The resolutions set forth that "recent tyrannical decisions against labor organizations are criminal attempts to frustrate our laudable purposes and place wage-earners in hopeless slavery." They also declare restraining orders simply should be a warning against unlawful acts and should not make criminal any acts which otherwise would be lawful.

The preamble of the resolutions declares reduction of hours is the only sane method of preventing overproduction and of providing work for the unemployed, and calls attention to warnings of coming depression and financial difficulty.

It is declared that peaceful and persuasive methods are the only ones understood by labor unions.

Chrysanthemum Show.

The annual chrysanthemum and carnation show of the Department of Agriculture opened yesterday in the new greenhouses at B and Fourteenth streets southwest, Washington. Throughout the day there was a procession of well-dressed people going to and from the greenhouses, and Mr. Oliver, the department's chrysanthemum expert, spent a busy day answering questions and escorting visitors.

Last night from 7 o'clock until nearly 11 an immense throng passed in and out of the greenhouses, which were brilliant with electric lights. Many distinguished persons were there; in fact, all of Washington's elite seemed to be on hand to admire the fine array of flowers. The new incurved, yellow chrysanthemum, the Mrs. Roosevelt, and the pronounced silvery pink, reflexed, quilled petaled Miss Alice Roosevelt, were the center of admiring groups.

Three members of the Seventieth regiment companies have been tried before a court-martial for various offenses. They have been found guilty and their punishment is recommended in the papers, which have been sent to Adjutant-General William Nalle, who will in turn forward them to Governor Montague for his signature. Letters have already been received by the captains of the companies of which the three soldiers were members notifying them of the action of the court-martial, but the sentences will not be made known until after the governor has finished with the papers and returned them to headquarters. It is likely that fifteen days will elapse before the names of the soldiers and the sentences are made known.

Arrival of the New Ferryboat.

The long expected ferryboat Woodbury passed Alexandria at 8:23 o'clock last night on her way to Washington. She left Wilmington, Del., shortly after noon last Saturday, made the run down the Delaware to the ocean and entered the capes Sunday morning, without incident, and would have passed this city that evening had the weather been propitious. But owing to the high wind and the heavy seas, the Woodbury ran into York river where she remained until yesterday morning when she started for Washington. The Norfolk steamer met the Woodbury near Marshall Hall and exchanged salutes with her. When the new ferryboat appeared off this city some people were on the wharves, and there was manifestation of delight, but owing to the hour the gatherings were small. The Woodbury sounded her whistle several times. Some tugboats which were in the river at the time exchanged salutes with the Woodbury, and the bell at the new ferry wharf was rung.

About eleven o'clock this morning a large percentage of the residents of this city, including many ladies, gathered on the wharves, especially at the new ferry slip. In the number were many who had received invitations to go down the river on the trial trip of the Woodbury. The steamer was scheduled to leave Washington at 11 o'clock, but she was delayed about half an hour in leaving that city. The steamer made the run to Alexandria in about 20 minutes. As she appeared off Fishtown all the whistles on the river front were sounded and the salutes were answered by the Woodbury. A band of music on the steamer played "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," and as she entered into her slip the musicians switched off on "Dixie." The approach to the slip was crowded with people, and those who had received invitations, went aboard. After remaining in the slip a few minutes the Woodbury left for a run down the river. The hills in the southern portion of the city were thronged with people who watched the new steamer as she passed. All were profuse in expressions of approbation of the Woodbury.

A most delightful trip was made down the river, the balmy air and the bright sunshine being all that could be desired for the occasion. During the trip down a beautiful luncheon was served, which was heartily enjoyed by the large throng of guests on board. When Marshall Hall was reached, a turn was made and the engine slowed down. President Woodbury then called the assembly to order and welcoming the guest of the company in a happy manner, presented Mayor Paff, who congratulated Washington and Alexandria on being so closely connected by the new ferry line and congratulated the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company upon giving to the people such a handsome steamer. He was followed by Commissioner Macfarland, of the District of Columbia, who extended congratulations to from the government and people of the District of Columbia and regretted that Alexandria had ever been severed from the District. He expressed the hope that Alexandria would again become a part of the District.

Mr. W. H. Lambert then spoke of the good feelings and relationship existing between the cities of Washington and Alexandria and expressed the hope that the good fellowship would continue and grow closer as time passed.

Commissioner West in a happy manner wished the company success and said the big expenditures of money by the District would be beneficial to the city of Alexandria He said in his early days he had heard that "Men may come and men may go, but the Alexandria Gazette would go on forever," and he hoped that this might be the way with the new ferry company.

Judge Nicol was then called on and made a happy address, during which he expressed the hope that Washington would always continue to be the capital of the country and that Alexandria would always remain a part of Virginia. This reply to Commissioner Macfarland was received with applause. The judge then expressed his thanks to the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company for the building of such a handsome vessel. He then in a felicitous manner presented to Mr. John Callahan, the genial manager of the company, a handsome silver punch bowl and stand as a testimonial of the Alexandria merchants and others, and expressed the appreciation of Mr. Callahan's public-spirited enterprise as shown by the part he has played in the re-establishment of the Washington and Alexandria ferry.

Mr. Callahan in accepting the testimonial spoke feelingly and expressed his sincere appreciation of the token, promising to do all within his power for the business interests of the city. He expressed his thanks for the kindly expressions of Judge Nicol on behalf of the city of Alexandria. He spoke of his being a Virginian, a Confederate soldier and of his love for Virginia and also of the business relations between the cities of Washington and Alexandria and said it was up to the people of Alexandria to say whether there would be another steamer on the line.

Mr. Frazier, vice president of the Harlan & Hollingsworth Shipbuilding Company, then spoke of the kind of boat his company had built for the new ferry, and he was followed by U. S. Inspector of Steam Vessels Geo. Uhler, who told his hearers what a fine steamer the Woodbury was.

President Woodbury then thanked the guests for their presence and Judge Nicol, on behalf of the guests from Alexandria, expressed thanks to President Woodbury and all the officers of the the new line for the enjoyable trip given them.

The steamer was then headed for this city and showed what good speed she could make. The Alexandrians disembarked at the ferry slip and the steamer then proceeded to Washington.

Altogether the trip was a most auspicious and enjoyable one.

The ferry will be opened to the traveling public tomorrow, the first boat leaving Alexandria at 6 a. m., and every hour thereafter until 6 p. m. The first boat will leave Washington at 6:30 a. m. and every hour thereafter until 6:30 p. m. The fare one way will be ten cents, or fifteen cents for the round trip. Twenty-five trip commutation tickets will be sold at $1.50, and fifty-two trip tickets at $2.80.

All Hallows' Eve.

Tonight will be All Hallows' Eve, or Hallowe'en, and according to ancient belief, goblins and elves, fairies and witches and other strange creatures will roam the earth to play their mad pranks upon innocent and unsuspecting mortals. As has been the case ever since Hallowe'en was first set aside as visiting day for the people of the mystic world of fable, the weird visitors will lay aside for the nonce their everd day appearance and assume disguise best calculated to further their schemes and designs upon mankind and womankind. The legends connected with Hallowe'en are legion, and many are republished at its annual recurrence. It is said to be a day that bashful suitors call blessed, because it is the one day in the year upon which a maid may throw down the barrier of conventional reserve with which modern etiquette surrounds her and give the backward Romeo that encourgement for which his heart yearns. If the girl is tactful, and most girls are, she can lend the fairies and witches such a helping hand as will enable the bashful suitor to make more progress in one evening than he could possibly make in all the other 364 evenings of the year. The custom of holding Hallowe'en parties has grown considerably in this country and much amusement and entertainment may be derived from a gathering of young folks, and they need not be so very young either. In Alexandria from time memorial Hallows' Eve has been observed mostly by mischevious boys who throw missiles and do all in their power to annoy other people. Often windows have been broken, front doors defaced and other senseless acts performed. The police on such occasions are generally kept busy.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

V. H. Spencer, arrested by Officers Beach and Sherwood charged with stealing a clock, was dismissed.

Joseph Moore, arrested by Officer Bettis charged with using vulgar and abusive language toward Minnie Simpson and assault, had his case continued.

Lorenzo Chase, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $2.50.

William Marshall, colored, charged with a similar offence, was dismissed.

Addie Washington, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

Lizzie Jackson, colored, arrested by Officer Bettis charged with assaulting Annie Jackson, was fined $2.50.

Two boys, charged with trespassing upon electric cars, were dismissed with an admonition.

Charge Dismissed.

As was stated in the Gazette, George W. Harrison, father of a young man named Albert Harrison, yesterday preferred charges against Conductor Mason Downs, of the electric railway, charging him with assault upon his son. It was alleged that the conductor slapped the youth, who had jumped on an electric train at King and Fairfax streets, and that he fell from the train and sustained serious injuries, he being unable to use his lower limbs. The case came up in the Police Court this morning before Justice Pelton, Justice Caton having requested Judge Barley to appoint the first-named to try the case, as Mr. J. B. Caton, of the law firm of which Justice Caton is a member, represented Conductor Downs. After the testimony in the case had been taken the conductor was dismissed.

Miss Willis, of Winchester, is visiting Miss Mary Thomson.

Alumni Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Alexandria Alumni of the University of Virginia was held yesterday evening. A committee was appointed to invite President Alderman, of the university, to visit Alexandria and make a public address on "Education" at some time convenient to him. Dr. L. M. Blackford and Messrs. L. H. Machen and Douglass Stuart were appointed the committee on invitation. The annual meeting of the alumni will be held on the first Monday in June next.

Corporation Court.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]

Administration upon the estate of the late Jas. F. Hamersley was granted to his widow, Virginia Hamersley.

E. A. Gorman vs. Southern Railway Company, a suit for damages for $5,000 for personal injuries and for the killing of his horse and the smashing of his buggy by a train at the corner of King and Henry streets; jury and case in progress.

Euchre.

A largely attended progressive euchre was given at the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum Hall last night for the benefit of the building fund of Lee Camp hall. The committee of ladies who had the euchre in charge managed the affair in an excellent manner, and the entertainment was a decided success. Seventy prizes were awarded to the successful persons, many of the prizes being very handsome and costly. Some of the principal prizes were awarded as follows: Gladstone bag, Thomas Hoy; hall rack, Elmer Spittle; umbrella, A. H Oehlert; chair, Mrs. Wm. Woolls; lamp, Mrs. Frank Hill; pin tray, Miss Lizzie Sheehey; puff box, Miss Mamie Toomey; bottle of cologne, Miss Ida Creegan; chop dish, Mrs. H. Bloch.

Officers Nicholson and Lyles, assisted by Richard Pines, colored, chased a colored bicycle thief yesterday evening up Shuter's Hill road. The negro, it is said, hid himself and the wheel in the bushes and asleep and escaped his pursurers.

No Appeal.

As stated yesterday Mr. Mackey, Commonwealth's Attorney for Alexandria county, on Saturday received a message from the attorney general of Virginia, stating that John C. Nelson and James Lafontaine, of this county had been given until today noon, by Judge Waddill, of the United States Court of the Eastern district of Virginia, in which to apply to Chief Justice Fuller of the U. S. Supreme Court, for an appeal from the decision rendered in their case recently. Nelson and Lafontaine were prosecuted by the State of Virginia on the charge of conducting a poolroom at Jackson City. Advices from Washington state that no appeal had been made up to 3 o'clock this evening.

President Passes Up.

President Roosevelt yesterday transferred to the United States dispatch-boat Dolphin and aboard that vessel left Wolf trap light on the last leg of his journey to Washington at 12:40 o'clock this morning. The Dolphin passed by this city at 11:12 o'clock. The guns of Fort Washington boomed an enthusiastic salute and welcome to the President as he steamed up the Potomac past the fort.

Contracts Awarded.

Mr. R. A. Wallace has secured the contract for laying a vitrified brick road on the west and south sides of the new union depot. Mr. Wallace has also received a contract to construct a granolithic pavement on the Prince and Lee street sides of the First National Bank.

Republican Meeting Tonight.

Circuit Court for the County.

The Circuit Court for the county, Judge C. E. Nicol presiding, adjourned for the term this evening. No business of general importance was transacted today.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The new cab service which was inaugurated in this city yesterday met with liberal patronage.

The U. S. Court was in session again today but transacted no business of general interest to the people of this city.

Wild geese are passing from the Potomac to the Rappahannock and back in vast numbers, and their excited movements and restlessness at this time is believed by many to be an indication of the early advent of winter.

A colored hod carrier named Barnes, who took a day off yesterday and imbibed too much liquor while on a hunting trip in Fairfax county, stood in front of an electric train to board a car yesterday at the Dyke, below this city, and was struck and badly hurt.

"Max," a brown water spaniel, a pet of the Postal Telegraph office, was killed by an automobile on King street yesterday afternoon.

A boy was knocked down by a vehicle at King and Washington streets this morning, but escaped serious injury.

Contest for Eight Hours.

A week ago the executive council of the International Typographical Union submitted to the referendum the proposition for an assessment of 50 cents per week per member to carry on the contest for the shorter workday. Today is the last day for voting. Many of the subordinate unions already have cast their ballots, and in every instance an overwhelming majority has been given for the assessment. Yesterday the members of Columbia Typographical Union of Washington, voted on the proposition, and the assessment was carried by an unprecedented majority. Out of a membership approximately 2,000, less than 400 voted in the negative. There was a large vote polled in its favor in the government printing office, and on the newspapers it was practically unanimous.

Information from headquarters last night was to the effect that the universal verdict for levying an assessment is most decisive.

Since January 1 last the members have been paying an assessment of one-half of one per cent. on their earnings for the eight-hour contest. This feature will stop now and the 50 cents a week will continue until the eight-hour day is established throughout the international jurisdiction.

Great Hound Contest Takes Place This Week.

The contest to decide the winner of the $1,000 placed by Harry W. Smith, master, of Worcester, Mass., as to the superiority of fox hounds of the Grafton Hunt Club, of the American hounds over the English hounds, and a like sum covered by Charles W. Higginson, master of fox hounds of the Middlesex Hunt Club, Mass., will commence tomorrow, November 1st. The first meet will be at Colonel R. H. Dulany's, in Fairfax county. The trials will continue daily for two weeks, and longer if the judges deem it necessary. Mr. Smith and party have rented the country home of H. Rozier Dulany, known as "Oakey," and reached there a week ago. Mr. Higginson and party are at Middlesex, eight miles below Upperville.

Owing to the difficulty in getting suitable transportation for the repatriation of the Russian prisoners from Yokohama, Kobe and Nagasaki, it will require three months' time to ship them all to Vladivostok.

There was a slight flurry of snow in Mecklenburg county Sunday morning. It melted, however, as soon as it fell.

TUESDAY EVENING. OCT. 31, 1905.

Heinecken, the German Prodigy.

Christian Henry Heinecken, the most wonderful of all the world's precocious prodigies, was born at Lubeck, Germany, in the year 1721. When but nine and a half months of age this human wonder could pronounce every word contained in the German language, and before he had rounded out his first year of earthly existence he knew all the leading events of the world's history. At the age of fourteen months he could give chapter and verse of any quoted passage of the Scriptures and knew the history of every book in both the Old and New Testaments. At the age of two and a half years he could answer every question in the geographies and histories then in use and could converse with visitors in either German, French, Dutch, Latin or Greek. His fourth year was devoted to the study of religion and ancient history. He had finished the studies mentioned and had started on a course in oriental religion when he suddenly died before completing his fourth year.

Three Boys and a Clock.

Three boys in a house were told to go and take the exact time by a clock in the town. The first lad went, looked at the clock, came back and said, "It is 12 o'clock." In after life he became a prosaic bookseller.

The second boy was more exact. He said on returning that it was three minutes past 12. He became a doctor.

The third lad looked at the clock, found out how long it had taken him to walk back to the house, returned to the clock, then added the time of his walk to the time of the clock and reported the result thus: "It is at this moment 12 hours, 10 minutes and 15 seconds." That boy came to distinction as Helmholtz, the scientist.

A Divided Church.

There is a very striking instance of religious toleration in Heidelberg, an ancient city of Germany. One of the most important buildings of that town is the Church of the Holy Ghost. Through the middle of this building a partition wall has been run, so that services according to the Roman Catholic and the Protestant ritual may be held at the same time. In the year 1719 an attempt was made by Charles Philip the Elector to deprive the Protestants of their half of the church, but the townspeople made so strong a resistance that he was obliged to desist and even to remove the electoral court from Heidelberg to Mannheim.—London Mail.

Humble Pie.

There is a queer twist of language in the phrase "to eat humble pie." The word "humble" is a corrupted form of the original "numble," which is an inedible part of the carcass of a deer and would make very poor pie. The words "humble pie" have the same original meaning as "to eat crow," a phrase common in political life. There is an enforced humility in this process, and the change from "numble" to "humble" introduced a thought which harmonized with the idea sought to be expressed. The last form of the phrase has entirely supplanted the original.

His Expenses.

One of the candidates at an election in Derbyshire, England, was a newcomer not remarkable for his generosity. He found himself defeated at the polls and bade adieu to the electors with the words, "At any rate, ladies and gentlemen, my wife and I have spent a very happy fortnight in the peak." "Yes," came a sudden retort from the crowd, "and that's all you have spent."

The Modest Girl.

"Ah, my love," sighed the ardent lover, "if you only knew how beautiful you are!"

"You mustn't speak of it," protested the modest girl. "I don't want to know."

"Why not?"

"Because," she said, "it would make me too conceited."—Philadelphia Press.

Last Hope Vanished.

When leading physicians said that W. M Smithart, of Pekin, Ia., had incurable consumption, his last hope vanished; but Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Cold, kept him out of his grave. He says: "This great specific completely cured me, and saved my life. Since then, I have used it for over 10 years, and consider it a marvelous throat and lung cure.' Strictly scientific cure for Coughs, Sore Throats or Colds; sure preventive of Pneumonia. Guaranteed 50c and $1.00 bottles at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, drug store. Trial bottle free.

Could Not be Better.

The uniform success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has won for it a wide reputation and many people throughout the country will agree with Mr. Chas. W. Mattison, of Milford, Va., who says: "It works like magic, and is the best preparation I know of. It couldn't be any better." He had a serious attack of dysentery and was advised to try a bottle of this remedy, which he did, with the result that immediate relief was obtained. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

For All Kinds of Piles.

To draw the fire out of a burn, heal a cut without leaving a scar, or to cure boils, sores, teter, eczema and all skin and scalp diseases, use DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A specific for blind, beeding, itching and protruding piles Stops the pain instantly and cures permanently. Get the genuine. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

A Splendid Idea.

A new idea in a Cough Syrup is advanced in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Besides containing Pine Tar, Honey and other valuable remedies. It is rendered Laxative so that its use insures a prompt and efficient evacuation of the bowels. It relaxes the nervous system, and cures all coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. A red clover blossoms and the honey bee is on every bottle of the Original Laxative Cough Syrup—Kennedy's Laxative Honey Tar. An ideal remedy for children. Mothers praise it. It is best for all Sold by W. F. Creighton, & Co., 401 King street.
